2. The Plaintiffs and Defendants stipulate that they will provide CedarCrestone with 5 days written notice before showing documents designated by CedarCrestone as “Confidential Information” or “Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” to a third-party

3. In the event that the Plaintiffs or Defendants elect to file CedarCrestone's "Confidential Information" or "Highly Confidential Information – Attorneys' Eyes Only"-designated documents with the Court, the Plaintiffs or Defendants agree to move the Court to seal them. The party so moving to file CedarCrestone's documents under seal will serve counsel for CedarCrestone with the motion to file under seal and related pleadings at the time of filing same by electronic and regular mail.

4. The foregoing stipulation resolves the issues in the meet and confer between CedarCrestone and Oracle concerning Oracle's subpoena. Accordingly, CedarCrestone will produce documents responsive to Oracle's subpoena, as modified by Chad Russell's May 8, 2011 letter to Robert T. Gill.
